

ALKEOS (AIKEXI) has been founded in Milan in September 2004 according to Italian reality needs to organize services in different fields with a common purpose: development and increase in cultural, economic and human relationship between China and Italy.

During these last three years, ALKEOS has established and forwarded an important dialogue with the two Countries both in national and international fields; in this way it has realized initiatives with the support and the cooperation of both Chinese and Italian institutional and diplomatic Authorities. The core of ALKEOS's action is to put its abilities at customers' and users' disposal: linguistic and cultural mediators, specialists in intercultural communications, interpreters and translators, law firms and bookkeeping departments which deal with the international market, communication experts, draftsmen and web designers, events promotion operators, business developpers, etc...

360° abilities allow ALKEOS to:

- plan and realize cultural and official events
- receive enterprises and businessmen and see them through business missions to and from China
- think and organize seminars, workshops and consultances specifically targeted to enterprises, businessmen and private customers
- plan vocational training
- design and edit multimedia, editorial and advertsing contents
- offer services of translation and interpreting
- open Italian language courses (beginners, intermediate and advanced) for Chinese people
- attend all kind of inquiries from the Chinese people living in Milan territory, thanks to the operators that everyday work in our Support and Listening Center

ALKEOS promotes its own activity in an operational, practical and effective way strong of the cooperation, mutual acquaintance and development of useful and durable relationship between China and Italy.

For infos:

alkeosbox-1@yahoo.it